A Little Heartache Is A Good Thing

Need an escape? Find that peaceful, easy feeling with Heartache Tonight, a Chicago-based tribute to The Eagles, at 8:00 pm on October 8 at Raue Center For The Arts and find out why a little “Heartache” is a good thing. BACK BY POPULAR DEMAND, Heartache Tonight will take you on a musical journey with their soaring harmonies and dynamic musicianship. The six multi-talented members of Heartache Tonight authentically capture the excitement and style of one of the world’s true super groups, The Eagles.

They showcase all The Eagles’ greatest hit including the legendary guitar duel in “Hotel California” to the incredible harmonies of “Take It Easy.” These gentlemen have shared stages with some of the biggest names in rock, including the Doobie Brothers, Charlie Daniels, Jimmy Buffet, America, Bad Company and Joe Cocker. They have wowed audiences at festivals and fairs and have performed at Ravinia, House of Blues, Hard Rock Café, Taste of Chicago, Wrigley Field and Algonquin Commons.

If you like The Eagles then you’ll love Heartache Tonight – a fantastic, affordable performance that makes for the perfect outing. Tickets are $35, $32 and $29 and going quickly! Be sure to get yours now by visiting www.rauecenter.org or the Box Office at 26 N. Williams Street or by calling 815.356.9212. Raue Center is a 501(c)3 non-profit, charitable organization located in historic, downtown Crystal Lake, Illinois.
