

Position: PT Raue Center School for the Arts Choreographer & Dance Teacher
Hours: 1 - 4 per week (with potential of more depending on the number of classes being taught)
Pay: Stipend based on teaching schedule

The Raue Center School for the Arts (RCSA) is thrilled to be relaunching its education program starting in the Spring of 2024 and is looking for a pool of passionate, dedicated and self-motivated teaching artists. Staff that is looking to enrich the lives of kids AND adults through the performing arts. Interested teaching artist should want to be part of, and available, to work throughout each of the trimester sessions in order to establish a rapport with returning young artist, adult artists and even parents. We're seeking a team of people who can continue to help in the growth of the overall program by bringing thrilling styles/ methods of teaching.

We currently are accepting applications/resumes for the following two positions:

Choreographer/Music Theatre Dance teacher that can provide lessons in different styles of dance: Musical Theater, Fosse, Tap, Contemporary, Jazz, etc.

We are also seeking Choreographer applications for our upcoming RCSA production of Diary of a Wimpy Kid.

- Diary of a Wimpy Kid: Auditions the week of February 26, 2024
- Rehearsals will run March 4 - April 17, 2024 (Days of the week TBD)
- Diary of a Wimpy Kid show run April 18, 19, 20, 2024 (2 shows on Saturday April 20th)

This position, a part of the education department, will report to and work collaboratively with the Director of Education to provide the best possible resources and education for the community. RCSA's class structure operates on a trimester approach. Classes will run for 6 weeks and then will be followed by another 5-7 weeks of rehearsals leading up to a youth production. Please note that the classes are NOT necessarily tied into the show being produced. Through a tier system of classes, students will be able to continue their growth and hone their craft with each class they take. IE: Music Theatre Dance will lead into Intermediate Musical Theatre Dance and so forth. This will happen roughly 3 times throughout the year with a potential of extra classes being added, which can also include, but is not limited to, 1 Day Master Classes, Weekend Workshops, Stage Readings, etc.

Please email the following to: rcsaeducation@rauecenter.org

- Cover letter which should include why teaching the arts is important to you and what you can bring to the program
- Professional resume and/or teaching resume (Teaching resume preferred)
- Idea of your available times to teach for the 2024 season.

Start date: 1/8/24 (dependent on the class)

Please note that submission of your resume is a not a guarantee of employment, HOWEVER, we will keep your information on file for future classes.
