Potential Teaching Assistant/Youth Coordinator should be a self-starter and an excellent collaborator with the creative team members.

Teaching Assistant/Youth Coordinator Responsibilities:

The Teaching Assistant/Youth Coordinator will help provide support for the director, choreographer, music director, assistant stage manager, and stage manager in the running of the production of Joseph and the Amazing... This position will be quite involved in assisting with the educational side of the production, planning of “activities” along with helping in maintaining the organization and focus of up to 35 students max.

- Be part of the amazing team that will oversee the production, and the students enrolled. Providing positive energy, attitude, and help where needed.
- Meet with the director, music director, choreographer and other teaching assistants as scheduled.
- Assist the Stage Manager and Assistant Stage Manager to set-up chairs, and tables, situate the piano, and adjust the physical layout of the classroom in preparation for that day's rehearsal.
- Lead and teach acting activities throughout the process. Scheduling and length of these activities will be coordinated with the rest of the team.
- Find fun and creative activities to implement during rehearsals as time allows.
- Attend production meetings.
- Help teach and mentor students from 10 to 18 years of age.
- Oversee and maintain the focus of a room full of students.
- Help organize and oversee the breaks with the assistance of the other team members.
- Once production moves to Raue Center, Teaching Assistants will oversee the behavior, focus, and guidance of the students.
- Have a love for working with kids.
- Excellent communication and organizational skills.

- High energy and flexibility to tackle all different types of personalities and levels of experience in the performing arts.
- Theater and teaching experience a plus, but not necessarily required
- All production team members and designers will need to participate in strike, immediately following the final performance (Sunday, March 8th):

Please email the following to: rceaeducation@rauecenter.org

- Cover letter which should include why working with kids is important.
- Share with us what you can bring to the class and camp program.
- Professional resume which should include any work with youth or teaching.

Start date: Is dependent on when first production meeting will be but could start as soon as December 15, 2025

Please note that submission of your resume is a not a guarantee of employment, HOWEVER, we will keep your information on file for future productions.
